

How to get to Locanda dell'Amorosa

La Locanda dell'Amorosa is located just outside the town of Sinalunga (1.5kms), in the province of Siena.

We strongly advise guests to travel by car: we are in the country and public transport is extremely limited. In addition, a car will be essential if you want to explore the area surrounding the Amorosa.

By car

From Florence or Rome:

(distance from the A1 motorway toll booth 10 km)

From Siena or Perugia

From Siena: exit the four lane S.G.C. Bettolle-Siena road at SINALUNGA and, once past the ESSO gas station, drive straight ahead until you reach a roundabout. Proceed in the direction of Torrita di Siena until you find, on your right, a long cypress tree lined avenue and the entrance to the hotel.

From Perugia: from the A1 motorway exit, follow the same indications given to those arriving from Florence or Rome (above)

From the center of Sinalunga

There are plenty of signs to Locanda dell'Amorosa (white signs with an arrow and AMOROSA written on them). The hotel is just 1.5 kms away from the town and can be reached via the SP 326 road which, from Sinalunga, leads to Torrita di Siena.

Locanda dell'Amorosa's long, cypress-tree lined entrance avenue lies parallel to the SP 14 road, also known as the "Traversa dei Monti", which leads, via Montalcino, from Val di Chiana all the way to Maremma Grossetana a Paganico.
